About Cades Cove. Cades Cove was once known as "Kate's Cove" after an Indian chief's wife. Cades Cove in the The Great Smoky Mountain National Park annually draws millions of vacation guests and visitors to the Smokies. Cades Cove Tennessee in the Great Smoky Mountain National Park has pioneer cabins, barns, rustic towns, cow pastures, wildlife and more. Travel back to the good old days of the Smoky Mountains and experience the ambience of the frontier days. Many of Cades Cove original buildings constructed by the pioneers have been preserved by the Great Smoky Mountain National Park. The Cherokee nation has deep roots in Cades Coves of the The Great Smoky Mountain National Park. Cades Cove has many hiking trails. Cades Cove is home to Oliver's Cabin the first log cabin in Cade's Cove. John Oliver was one of the first settlers in the Cade's Cove region of the Smokies. If you are enjoying one of our Cade's Cove log cabin rentals make sure to visit the Cades Cove Primitive Baptist Church the original church of Cada's Cove. Before the Cades Cove Primitive Baptist Church settlers would travel through the Smoky Mountains and attend Sunday prayer meeting in Millers Cove or Wears Cove. Some of the Cades Cove cottage renters also attended campground church revivals in Tuckaleechee Cove which is now the modern Townsend, Tennessee. The Cades Cove Methodist Church was also popular and started as a large log cabin in Cade's Cove complete with a dirt floor and fire pit and now is a historic white frame structure. Cades Cove Cabin Rental vacation guests are encouraged to visit Hyatt Lane in Cades Cove. Hyatt Lane is one of the original Indian trails used by travelers as they crossed the Smoky Mountains moving through Tuckaleechee TN or Maryville TN. Many Cade Cove cabin rental vacation guests enjoy walking on the many trails leading to Maryville TN through the Smoky Mountains. Smoky Mountain tourists and Cades Cove cabin rental guests also like to visit Elijah Oliver Place a Cades Cove log cabin nestled deep in the Smokies. The Elijah Oliver log cabin includes a smokehouse, corn crib, springhouse and barn.

If you are looking for a Cades Cove rental cabin or Cades Cove cottage rental you are sure to find many choices as Cades Cove has more than 8,000 cabins and chalets surrounding The Great Smoky Mountain National Park. Cades Cove cabin rentals, Cades Cove chalet rentals, and Cades Cove cottage rentals are popular with Smoky Mountain vacation guests who enjoy traveling to the Cade's Cove area of the Smoky Mountains for fishing, hiking, biking, kayaking, horseback riding, golfing, and other good ol relaxing vacation fun. Cades Cove cabin rental guests should plan on visiting the: Cable Mill Historic Area & Visitor Center, Cable Mill Barn, The Smokies Corn Crib, The Smokehouse, The John P. Cable Mill, The Mill Flume, The Cantilever Barn, The Blacksmith Shop and drive along the Cades Cove Loop in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.
